ADDITIONAL FORT WORTH NEWS

The Bridge Party, given at Josephs by the Council of Jewish Women, was a great success both financially and socially, one hundred and four ladies attended.

Mrs. Abe Gardner, who so graciously donated four aprons and a beautiful boudoir cap, which she made, helped to swell the funds.

Mrs. H. Kassel won the cap and was kind enough to donate it back. It will be disposed of at our next party.

A Regular Girl

Earning $10,000 in thirty days, winning the hearts of many men, showing the world how women can rule, and whooping things up in general is OUR idea of "A Regular Girl."

You'll say so, too, when you see Elsie Janis in this mile-a-minute story of romance and adventure.

—The "Hit" of 'Em All!

If That Boy Never Did Anything More Strenuous Than This

There would be little use for a suit to be other than stylish.

But the next thing he will be rolling around in the dust or in a football game

Consequently a Boys Clothes must be serviceable as well as stylish.

HART, SCHAFFNER & MARX and SAM PECK CLOTHES for boys answer both requirements—

They're the best looking Clothes ever made for boys.
